Q11 MCQ

Passage: "Kaizen, the Japanese practice of continuous improvement, rests on a simple idea: large gains can come from many small changes. A worker who moves a tool rack closer to a machine saves a few seconds per cycle; across thousands of cycles and hundreds of workers, the saving becomes large. Critics point out that small steps cannot replace bold redesign when a process is fundamentally flawed. Supporters reply that the two are complementary: kaizen keeps a good process improving between the rare occasions when a radical change is justified."

Which of the following is supported by the passage?

- (A) Kaizen and occasional radical redesign can work together.
(B) Kaizen makes radical redesign unnecessary.
(C) Small changes can never produce large gains.
(D) Critics believe kaizen saves no time at all.

Q12 MCQ

Passage: "Kaizen, the Japanese practice of continuous improvement, rests on a simple idea: large gains can come from many small changes. A worker who moves a tool rack closer to a machine saves a few seconds per cycle; across thousands of cycles and hundreds of workers, the saving becomes large. Critics point out that small steps cannot replace bold redesign when a process is fundamentally flawed. Supporters reply that the two are complementary: kaizen keeps a good process improving between the rare occasions when a radical change is justified."

The example of the tool rack is used mainly to

- (A) show how small savings add up to a large gain
(B) argue that workers waste time
(C) show that machines need redesign
(D) prove that critics of kaizen are wrong

Q13 (NAT)

How many of the following sentences are grammatically correct? (i) Each of the boys has his own locker. (ii) I look forward to meet you. (iii) Neither of the answers is correct. (iv) He did not knew the answer. (v) The committee has submitted its report.

Detailed Solutions

Q1 Answer: (A) has

Concept: The verb agrees with the head noun of the subject, not with the noun inside the 'of' phrase.

Head noun: quality (singular) → 'has improved'. 'Castings' is only the object of 'of'.

'Since ...' needs the present perfect, which also rules out 'were'.

Exam tip: Strike out the 'of ...' phrase and read the sentence again: 'The quality has improved'.

Q2 Answer: (A) practical

Concept: Pragmatic = dealing with things sensibly and realistically.

Closest: practical. 'Idealistic' is nearly the opposite; 'dogmatic' and 'talkative' are sound or look-alike traps.

Exam tip: In GATE synonym questions, eliminate words with the opposite tone first.

Q3 Answer: (A) evident

Concept: Obscure = not clear, hard to understand or little known.

Opposite: evident (plain, clearly seen). 'Vague' and 'hidden' are near-synonyms; 'remote' is unrelated.

Exam tip: Check the part of speech: 'obscure' is also a verb (to hide), but the antonym must match the adjective sense asked.

Q4 Answer: (A) Rotational speed

Concept: Instrument : quantity it measures.

An ammeter measures current; a tachometer measures rotational speed (rpm).

Torque: dynamometer; temperature: thermometer/pyrometer; pressure: manometer/Bourdon gauge.

Exam tip: State the relation in a sentence first, then test each option in the same sentence.

Q5 Answer: 4

Concept: Check each word letter by letter against the standard spelling.

Correct: necessary, occasion, rhythm, privilege → 4.

Wrong: receive, accommodation, maintenance.

Exam tip: 'i before e except after c' fixes receive; double letters (accommodation, embarrass) are frequent traps.

Q6 Answer: (A) at

Concept: Fixed preposition: good at (a skill or activity).

'Good in' is used for a subject in some regions but 'good at + -ing' is the standard form.

Exam tip: Learn adjective-preposition pairs: good at, interested in, capable of, responsible for.

Q7 Answer: (A) something that seems bad at first but turns out to be good

Meaning: an apparent misfortune that later proves helpful.

Example: Missing the bus was a blessing in disguise; I met the recruiter at the station.

Exam tip: Idiom questions in GATE GA are usually common ones; read them literally only to discard options.

Q8 Answer: 2134

Concept: Find the opening (no pronoun or connector pointing back), then follow the links.

2 sets the past situation ('In the past'); 1 the change ('now'); 3 uses 'the readings' from 1; 4 sums up with 'This shift'.

Order: 2134

Exam tip: Words like 'this', 'these', 'the readings', 'however' always point to an earlier sentence.

Q9 Answer: (A) crude, refined

Concept: 'Although' signals a contrast between the two blanks.

Only (A) gives opposite ideas: crude prototype, refined final product.

(B), (C) and (D) pair similar words, which do not fit 'although'.

Exam tip: Spot the connector first (although, because, and, but); it tells you same or opposite.

Q10 Answer: (A) Part 2

Concept: 'One of the + plural noun' takes a singular verb.

Subject: 'one' → 'was found'. The error is in part 2.

Exam tip: Compare with 'one of those who ...', where the verb after 'who' is plural.

Q11 Answer: (A) Kaizen and occasional radical redesign can work together.

Concept: Choose the option that the passage states or directly implies; reject extreme words (never, unnecessary).

The supporters' reply: 'the two are complementary' → (A).

(B) contradicts 'rare occasions when a radical change is justified'; (C) contradicts the main idea;

(D) misstates the critics, who only say small steps cannot fix a flawed process.

Exam tip: In GATE RC, the right option is usually a paraphrase, not a copy, of one line.

Q12 Answer: (A) show how small savings add up to a large gain

Concept: Ask why the author included the example.

A few seconds per cycle × thousands of cycles × hundreds of workers = large saving: it illustrates the 'many small changes' idea.

Exam tip: 'The example is used to ...' questions are answered by the sentence just before the example.

Q13 Answer: 3

Concept: Check agreement and verb forms in each sentence.

(i) correct: 'each' takes 'has'. (iii) correct: 'neither of' takes a singular verb. (v) correct: the committee acting as one body takes 'has ... its'.

(ii) wrong: 'look forward to meeting' ('to' is a preposition here). (iv) wrong: 'did not know'.

Answer: 3

Exam tip: After did/does/do, the verb is always in its base form.

Q14 Answer: (A) mitigate

Concept: Confusable words.

Mitigate = make less severe (fits). Militate (against) = be a strong factor against; migrate = move; mediate = act as a go-between.

Exam tip: GATE loves look-alike pairs: mitigate/militate, affect/effect, complement/compliment, principal/principle.

Q15 Answer: 4

Concept: Find the common group.

Anemometer (wind speed), barometer (air pressure) and hygrometer (humidity) are weather instruments.

The stethoscope is a medical instrument → 4.

Exam tip: When two groupings seem possible, pick the one that leaves exactly one item out.
